Parking

Lions Park is on the east side of downtown Zionsville, three blocks east of Main Street. (See map below). Other events are sharing the park with us on on-ride day, so we have been asked to park near the entrance to the park. One lane in to, and out of, the park will be closed to auto traffic, as it is dedicated to our bike ride.

Lions Park, Zionsville

Parking is in pink area within Lions Park Look for the yellow registration flag near the white gazebo Restrooms are just west of Start / Finish line, adjacent to the ride staging area.

Registration

Event Registration will be in the white gazebo in Lions Park. Look for the yellow feather flag that says "REGISTRATION". There will be two lines at registration. One line for pre-registered riders and one for same day registrations. We strongly encourage you to pick up your registration on Thursday night to avoid lines and confusion on the morning of the event. Go to Nebo Ridge between 5:30 and 8pm.

For same day riders, registration fees can be paid by cash, check, or credit card (MC, Visa, and Discover) There is no guarantee for same-day registrations that we will have a shirt in your size.

At Registration you will receive a goody bag, rider #, and map with cue sheet, along with a t-shirt, and any additional clothing that you ordered online during registration.

After registration, feel free to shop, sign a dedication, or take pre ride photos.

Restrooms

Restrooms are located next to the ride staging area, adjacent to the parking lot and Start / Finish line in Lions Park. See attached map of Start / finish area.

The Start

Just before the start, we will have a short period of announcements

We will recognize and call forward our top fundraiser. Fundraising is not required for this event, but we do appreciate those that do fundraise.

The Cancer veterans in the group are called forward.

We will recognize those who could not ride with us today.

The cancer veterans then lead us out of town behind the police escort.

Bike Riding

A reminder that these are open roads, and that there will be traffic on the route. Cyclists need to obey all traffic laws. In Indiana, riders may ride 2 abreast if they are not impeding traffic.

We have done multiple course inspections and believe the course to be clean, safe, and well-marked. It is still possible that dogs, potholes, gravel, and other hazards may develop at any time. If you feel any hazard is unsafe, contact the Sag wagon team at 317-840-7770 (This number is also on your route map) and every effort will be made to reduce the hazard.

Hazards on the 100 km and 100 mile loops include two a railroad crossings. The first crossing is about 5 miles after the first snack stop. The second railroad crossing is on the return leg from the Pittsboro. This crossing is much more severe, with the track crossing the road at an angle harsh enough that it can cause tires to be caught and cause a fall. Look for the word "CAUTION" on the road before this crossing.

Consider moving left towards the center line of the road as you approach the tracks, and move from left to right as you cross the tracks, making your crossing of the tracks more perpendicular, and less angular.

On the 100 km and 100 mile route the county has recently done some chip-&-seal and road repair. We have re-routed and avoided a great deal of this. On the return from Pittsboro there are some gravel patches and a short bit of chip-&-seal. Please be diligent.

Use CAUTION when crossing the tracks on road S 400 E

Snack Stops

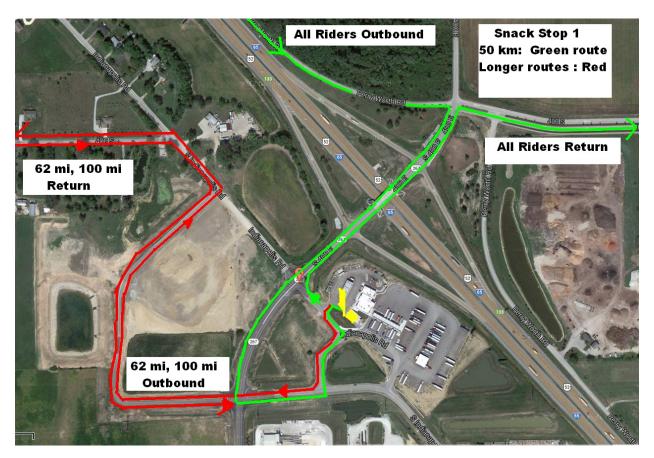

Look for the yellow feather flag, along with a brightly colored pup-up tent along the edge of the parking lot at each of the stops.

Snack Stop 1

Occurs 17 miles into the ride. It is also the turnaround point for the 50 km (31 mile) loop. It is located at the Loves travel center on Indianapolis rd. (called LaFayette Rd in Marion County), near Whitestown. Restrooms are available inside.

Riders returning from this stop go north out of the parking lot, and turn right, crossing over I-65

Riders continuing on the 100 km (62 mile) and 100 mile loops will leave the parking lot going west, and cross over route 267. These riders will return to this stop later on their return, where they will then go north to leave the parking lot, the same as the 50 km riders.

Valet / Coat Check Service

Did you wear arm warmers or a wind jacket at the start, and as the day warms up, you no longer need it? If so, you can "Check it" at one of the snack stops. Each snack stop has 1 gallon zip-lock bags just for this. Place your checked gear in the bag, along with the check form. One of the Sag wagons will return your gear to the registration tent at the finish. You can then pick up your gear at the finish of your ride.

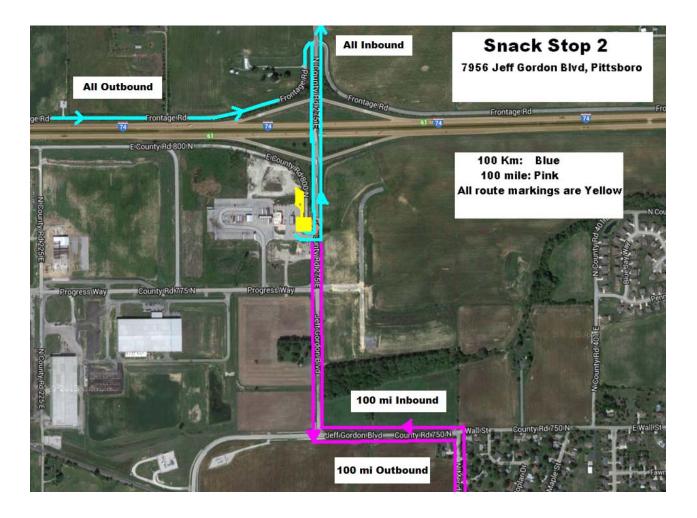

Be aware that the sag wagon's primary job is to assist riders on the course. There is a chance, especially if you are doing a shorter loop, you may beat the sag wagon back to the finish, and might have to wait for your gear.

Snack Stop 2

Occurs 37 miles into the ride. It is also the turnaround point for the 100 km (62 mile) loop. It is located at the Loves travel center on Jeff Gordon Blvd, in Pittsboro. Restrooms are available inside.

Riders returning from this stop turn left, and go north out of the parking lot, crossing over I-74

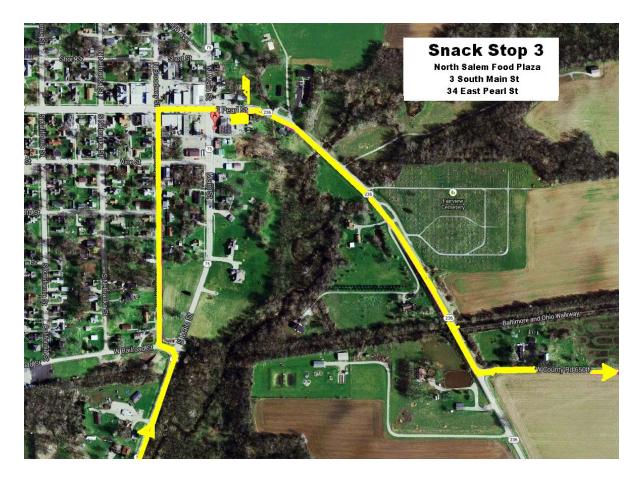

Riders continuing on the 100 mile loops will leave the parking lot and turn right on Jeff Gordon Blvd., continuing south towards Pittsboro. These riders will return to this stop later on their return, where they will then go north to leave the parking lot, the same as the 100 km riders.

Snack Stop 3

Occurs 57 miles into the ride. It is also the turnaround point for the 100 mile loop. It is located at the North Salem Food Plaza on Pearl Street in North Salem. Restrooms are available inside.

Riders returning from this stop continue east out of the parking lot.

Sag Wagons and Support

There will be several support vehicles travelling along the route. If you have a problem and need support, call the Sag Wagon phone number on your route map (317) 840-7770

They will have a small set of tools and air pump for simple repairs.

At the Finish

The ride finish is in Lions park. At the end of Main Street, the same cobbled road that we used to depart earlier in the day. We turn left onto Sycamore, go two blocks, and turn left into Lions Park. As you approach the finish, the road is closed to automobile traffic. There will be traffic marshals to direct you through the cones that are keeping the cars out of the finish area. As you approach the finish arch, you can look up and see your finish time.

Ring the Bell!

For those that are cancer veterans, there is an end-of- treatment ceremony that all look forward to. In the waiting area of each treatment center stands a bell. This is rung by the patient as they leave after their final treatment. To celebrate our finish, we to have a bell, and ask you to ring it; to celebrate your finish, and to celebrate those that have finished their cancer treatments, to honor those currently intreatment, and to remember those who ran out of time before a cure was found.

After the Ride

Head over to the White gazebo where we will have post ride snacks.

A big thanks to Texas Road house for providing a potato bar to help replace those carbs burned up on the ride.

Walk / ride over to downtown Zionsville, and enjoy the food, artisans and more.
